

A Great Harvest of Souls is near:

In 2001, the Lord gave me this word about a Harvest that would come when the marriage of ALL of the five Ministry gifts took place, apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers, specifically the prophetic and evangelistic ministries: I wrote it in a book titled; Prophetic Evangelism – Reaping the Final Harvest published in 2001 by Golden Eagle Publishing <http://www.gepublishing.org/>

What can we expect to see in this coming event? First we will see another of touch from God in the restoration of the prophetic ministry. All called to that ministry will take their specific place in Kingdom activity. In addition to their initial call they will re-ignite the fires of evangelism in many churches. The ignition of prophetic evangelism will cause a conflagration of revival fires in the earth. As the evangelist and the prophet come together in the oneness of equipping and nurturing God's army, the soldiers who sow and reap in this harvest will stand together in unbroken ranks. Conjoined in oneness and purpose of God's heart for his creation, no foe will be able to kill, steal, or destroy this army of His love.

In a transitional phase, congregations will be restored to the original intent of God. A body of believers residing together with a kingdom focus of community that is supported by all the saints being and doing the work of the ministry to which they are called. In this aspect of restoration, all ministry gifts will actively work together in local church bodies. Satellite home ministries will be set in specific communities by the setting apart of the Holy Spirit and replace the programmatic ideals of our past. These ministries will carry the manifest presence of God's sons who live in oneness and power. Such apostolic communities will function with renewed prophetic, pastoral, and teaching anointing and will be the primary place of equipping and nurturing those reaped in the harvest. Corporate meetings will transition into places of celebration, prayer, and worship; all ministering to the Lord as we present our bodies as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to Him, dwelling places of the Holy Spirit, living arks, of the New Covenant.

When the evangelist and prophetic ministries are joined together via the voice of the Holy Spirit we will experience prophetic insight from God's heart for a lost and dying world. The power to save men's souls will come through Him who reveals the secrets of lost hearts through prophecy. Healing, deliverance, and salvation will manifest through the gifts of a word of knowledge, discerning of spirits and prophetic words that flow freely from the hearts of a truly equipped people of God. Signs, wonders, and miracles will become common victories of a prophetic church equipped with the weapons of God's warfare; the greatest weapon being His love for the lost. The Gospel of The Kingdom will be preached and proclaimed without compromise.

I believe over the past ten years we have seen some of these things happen on a small scale. We have also seen a greater move of true equipping ministries in much of the church. I currently see the Lord purifying the heart and souls of His people so that His greatest power can be released from them into the harvest to come.
